

International Affiliates

GESS International is the product of many years recruiting experience in Asia Pacific. During that time our human network - colleagues and business partners - has expanded from Asia to North America. We are particularly proud of our long track record and contacts within Silicon Valley.

The following companies are affiliate partners.

TKO - Phoenix

President Ken Reed has been recruiting for Silicon Valley Companies for more than 20 years. He is perhaps the most widely known recruiting professional inside Silicon Valley. A regular speaker at conferences and exhibitions, Ken was the managing director at his previous company, TKO, before it was successfully bought out by a NASDAQ publicly traded company in 1999. He started his new company TKO-Phoenix, in 2003.
